“WHEN IT COMES TO FINDING THE RIGHT WINDOW FOR YOU AND YOUR CUSTOMERS, THE ANSWER AT HANCOCK LUMBER COMPANY IS GOING TO BE ‘YES,’ WE HAVE A GREAT WINDOW FOR THAT.” —KEVIN HANCOCK

Hancock Lumber’s commitment to windows and doors is stronger now than ever before. In the last 12 months we’ve been working hard to make it easier for builders to choose Hancock Lumber when purchasing these products, including expanding our territory to cover the entire state of New Hampshire. We believe we’ve created a great millwork company that can help you with product quality, selection, price and service, no matter the project, location or budget.

UNPARALLELED WINDOW KNOWLEDGE

With five dedicated Architectural Window and Door Specialists on the road covering territories across New Hampshire and Maine, we can provide the expertise needed to walk you through one of the biggest building decisions. Every day we work with architects, window specifiers, builders, and homeowners to find the right solutions for your window and door needs. We’ve assembled the best assortment of windows, led by our unique position with Andersen Windows and supported by three other great brands. Our team of specialists knows everything there is to know about these products—and, as the exclusive distributor for four of the five product lines, Hancock Lumber provides comprehensive service and support from pre-sale estimating to post-installation field service, factory direct communication, increased agility, faster shipping times and efficient pricing. Explore your options with Andersen, Eagle, our own Hancock Classics, Norwood, and Unilux today:

- Andersen. A century of reliability and craftsmanship representing the country’s most trusted window brand.

With a full range of choices from the subtle to the dramatic and everything in between, Hancock Lumber has the selection and expertise to help you choose the right windows for your project. Select from our exceptional collection of windows from Andersen, Eagle, Norwood, Unilux, and our own, Hancock Classics.

- Eagle, an Andersen Company. Design Freedom, Defined by Eagle: Unlimited possibilities with made-to-order premium aluminum-clad windows and doors.
- Hancock Classics. Made-in-Maine exclusively for Hancock Lumber, one of the best values you can find in a vinyl window.
- Norwood. Match your creativity with the finest in this Canadian all-wood window and door line. Most definitely never ordinary.
- Unilux. Ultra energy efficiency, German engineering and a unique European style, there is no window on Earth like Unilux.

COMPETITIVE POSITIONING

We know that keeping our prices low every day is a top priority if we’re going to bring you competitive costs. Beyond that, our exclusive distributorships for several top-notch brands bring you closer to the manufacturer for better ordering efficiency, shorter delivery times, and lower pricing than traditional three-step distribution.

While many companies try to make your project fit their window selection, Hancock Lumber has taken a different approach offering a menu of choices that will fit any project and budget. When it comes to finding the right window for you and your customers, the answer at Hancock Lumber Company is going to be “yes,” we have a great window for that.

BEYOND THE PRODUCT SERVICE

All the expertise you need with any aspect of your window and door project—and then some! Once your windows are selected and delivered, the Hancock experience continues. Since we are our own distributor, we have our own service and installation experts in the field who will come right to your jobsite to consult and support installation and show your homeowner how to operate and care for their windows. Hancock Lumber’s expert staff provides after-sale and post-installation on-site service for all of the major window lines we sell. Our full-time window technicians take part in ongoing manufacturer training in order to provide site inspections, product removal, and installations. Should you or your homeowner need assistance in the future, we’ll come right back and provide it.

Warranties. We believe in the windows we sell. When we select a manufacturer to associate with our Hancock Lumber brand, you can rest assured it is a product of quality and integrity. You’ll find the proof in the warranties behind all of the products we carefully choose to offer: an unprecedented assurance, including our Hancock Classics™, Classics Plus™ industry-leading lifetime warranty.

SINCE 1848 AND JUST GETTING STARTED
